Pheasant Lover Scared

Someone with taste for pheasant under glass, disturbed the sleep of Vernon Eaton, at 1840 Reynosa Dr., he told Torrance police Thursday.

Eaton said he was awakened when he heard the pheasants in his back yard raising a racket. He arose to see a man wearing dark trousers and a white shirt jump over the rear fence of his yard. No birds were taken, he said.

TURN RIGHT AT CROSSROADS

Our choice of roads at the Cross Roads to which I refer requires a fine discrimination between a happy life and living death; the smoothest road, with the most alluring signs, leads down hill to the mire of disillusionment; the other road is rocky, winds up hill to a haven of spiritual peace and all the freedoms we love.

Some, for reasons of personal power, would have us prostitute the theory of Free Enterprise. They would have us believe that any form of thrift is abhorant, to worship God is futile, kindness is weakness and only brute force can conquer; their arguments sound plausible until we scratch the sweetened coating and find the bitter reality of servitude.

Turn RIGHT! Mingle with people whose hands are clean and helpful, whose voices are sweet and clear, who, like ourselves, realize our mortal limitations and labor ever upwards to better things, spiritual and divine acceptance.

Christ Jesus Lesson for Next Sunday

The Lesson-Sermon on "Christ Jesus" to be read in all Christian Science churches on Sunday points out that the burdens of limitation, disease, and fear are lifted from mankind when the Master Christian's teachings are accepted and utilized.

The Golden Text from I John (4:14) declares, "We have seen and do testify that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world."

It is recorded in Matthew's Gospel (3:16, 17) that when

Jesus, was baptized, he "went straightway . . . out of the water; and, lo, the heavens were opened unto him, and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and lighting upon him; and lo a voice from heaven, saying, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

Mary Baker Eddy says in "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures": "Jesus was the highest human concept of the perfect man. He is inseparable from Christ, the Messiah—the divine idea of God outside the flesh . . . Angels announced to the Wisemen of old this dual appearing, and angels whisper it, through faith, to the hungering heart in every age" (p. 482).
